

Who's Your One?

Becoming a Gardener

1 Corinthians 3:5-9

5 What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants, through whom you came to believe--as the Lord has assigned to each his task. 6 I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow. 7 So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. 8 The man who plants and the man who waters have one purpose, and each will be rewarded according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

Message notes:

God is already in _____ of your one.

There is a _____ to people coming to faith.

We have a calling to become _____.

People need many _____ and reminders to come to faith..

It is just as important to _____ someone as it is to invest in them.

God gets all the glory, but there is _____ in gardening for us.

When you share, people care about your heart to be a _____ –a blessing.

Discussion Questions:

Why is it dangerous to focus so deeply on teachers of faith or other heroes?

What does it mean to be a gardener in faith?

How did simple, small touches play a role in your story of coming to faith?

What are some simple, creative things you can do for your one to help point them towards faith?

How do all of our serving areas work together? How can we avoid the pain of comparing our callings vs other's callings?

Why does God use us as gardeners instead of working in their lives on His own? How could your heart grow to become a better gardener?

Ministry Time Questions:

Is anyone struggling with finding the value of these simple touches as a gardener?

Does anyone have deep needs within their family that we could pray for?
