

Who's Your One?

Becoming an Ambassador

2 Corinthians 5:17-20

17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! 18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: 19 that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting men's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. 20 We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God.

Message notes:

Being a witness has to become _____.

When you come to faith, you become part of the _____.

We must keep the _____ of the Lord before us:
He is seeking the lost.

I am obligated to share the good news—to become a _____.

We need to represent God for _____—not our own agendas.

Ambassadors _____ the one.

What a _____ to tell others that God cares about them and wants better for them!

Additional notes:

Discussion Questions:

Why does caring for those who are not part of our Church need to be in our DNA?

Why is it so important to keep the burden of the Lord—seeking the lost—in front of us?

What does it mean to have the ministry of reconciliation? Is this the same mindset that you grew up in faith with?

What needs to change in your life for you to become a more Christ-like ambassador?

What is the difference between looking for the one and living a passive life?

Why should being an ambassador bring joy in your life?

Ministry Time Questions:

Is anyone struggling under the weights of prejudice that are hindering your ability to be an ambassador?

Are you struggling to see fruit in praying for or reaching out to your one?
